Parent Newsletter #5

September 23, 2019

As we near the end of our first full month of school, it is important to reflect on the progress of your kiddos. We encourage you to ask them about their experiences at school and what they have been learning about. They are eager to share what they have been doing and we are excited that they want to share. Your support of your child is apparent in their work so far and we are thankful for the continued role you play in helping them grow in their education and their faith. We are here to help with this process and we are grateful that you have chosen us to serve you in this journey. Thanks again for your continued support and prayers for our mission and for being a part of our family.
